Neglect It and Then Regret It!

You now have your babies and other small children, but have no picture of them. Winter is coming on with the danger of colds, croup and other diseases of children. You may take them through the winter and may not. Should you lose one or more and have no picture of them? you would then regret your neglect. Bring your little ones and big ones also to us right by the post office and get photos. If you can not get high priced get cheap ones, but get Photographs of some kind. We seldom fail with babies.

PLATTER & CO.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1904.

EVEN if Christmas was a little gloomy over head and a little sloppy under foot there is little complaint about the rain. The country needs it.

A BOOM has already been started for Chas. W. Miller, attorney general, for governor in 1908. He is made out of the right sort of stuff for governor and can at once command the support of a host of friends throughout the state.

MRS. CHADWICK did not enjoy her Christmas this time at all. She had better times in the past when she was spending other people's money. It is quite likely too that some of those men who were taken in by this woman have experienced happier Christmases than this year.

JUST how the missing treasurer of Cass county could have been spending that county's money right and left for months and months and not be detected or even suspected is difficult to understand. His bondsmen should have taken notice of the way he was disposing of public funds and called a halt. They can see now that he could not have made the investments he did with his own money. Why could not these things have been known months sooner? A man who accepts a public office should conduct himself properly and when he does not so conduct himself it is time to say something.

DIED.

COOPER—Mrs. Sina Cooper, widow of the late Congressman Geo. W. Cooper, died at her home in Indianapolis Saturday. The remains will be taken to Columbus for burial Tuesday morning. Her husband died in 1899.

ORR—Dr. James Orr, of Terrell, Texas, a brother-in-law of the late Dr. T. S. Galbraith, of this city, died Sunday. A message announcing his death, was received here.

Preparing Report.

Representative Honan is at home after making the rounds of the state's educational, penal and benevolent institutions as a member of the legislative committee appointed for that purpose. It was a big job to go to all these institutions and inspect them thoroughly; to learn their present conditions and their needs. But the committee has gone about the work industriously and is prepared to make an intelligent report.

The preparation of this report will be another difficult task and will require a large part of the committee's time before the legislature meets.

Not Poison He Took.

Saturday evening there was considerable excitement over on High street when it was thought that Sam Jones had taken poison and would probably die. But it is doubtless true that he took no poisonous drug at all. He may have thought he had taken something of that sort, but from the best information at hand he was in a condition to be easily mistaken. He had probably been imbibing too much fire water which was likely the real source of all the excitement and mistaken notions.

Driven to Desperation.

Living at an out of the way place, remote from civilization, a family is often driven to desperation in case of accident, resulting in burns, cuts, wounds, ulcers, etc. Lay in a supply of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the best on earth. 25c at W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Worst of All Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newton, Decatur, Ala. "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered. For liver, kidney, stomach and bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by W. F. Peter Drug Co."

Planting the Financial Tin Can

Don't Expect to Grow a Crop of Tomatoes From the One Printed on the Label

From "Old Gorgon Graham; More Letters From a Self-Made Merchant to His Son," by George Horace Lorimer. By permission of Doubleday, Page & Co., Publishers.

I don't care how much or how little money you make, I want you to understand that there's only one place in the world where you can live a happy life, and that's inside your income. A family that's living beyond its means is simply a business that's losing money, and it's bound to go to smash. And to keep a safe distance ahead of the sheriff you've got to make your wife help. More men go broke through bad management at home than at the office. And I might add that a lot of men who are used to getting only one dollar's worth of food for a five dollar bill downtown expect their wives to get five dollars' worth of food for a one dollar bill at the corner grocery and to save change toward a pair of diamond earrings. These fellows would plant a tin can and kick because they didn't get a case of tomatoes.

Of course some women put their husbands' salaries on their backs instead of his ribs, but there are a heap more men who burn up their wives' new sealskin sacks in two bit cigars. Because a man's a good provider it doesn't always mean that he's a good husband; it may mean that he's a hog. And when there's a cuss in the family, and it comes down to betting which, on general principles the man always carries my money. I make mistakes at it, but it's the only winning system I've ever been able to discover in games of chance.

You want to end the wedding trip with a business meeting and talk to your wife quite as frankly as you would to a man whom you'd taken into partnership. Tell her just what your salary is and then lay it out between you—so much for joint expenses, the house and the housekeeping, so much for her expenses, so much for yours and so much to be saved. That last is the one item on which you can't afford to economize. It's the surplus and undivided profits account of your business, and until the concern accumulates a big one it isn't safe to move into offices on Easy street.

A lot of fool fathers only give their fool daughters a liberal education in spending, and it's pretty hard to teach those women the real facts about earning and saving, but it's got to be done unless you want to be the fool husband of a fool wife. These girls have an idea that men get money by going to a benevolent old party behind some brass bars and shoving a check at him and telling him that they want it in fifties and hundreds.

You should take home your salary in actual money for awhile and explain that it's all you got for sweating like a dog for ten hours a day through six long days and that the cashier handed it out with an expression as if you were robbing the cash drawer of an orphan asylum. Make her understand that while those that have get, when they present a check, those that haven't get it in the neck. Explain that the benevolent old party is only on duty when papa's daughter has a papa that Bradstreet rates A.A. and that when papa's daughter's husband presents a five dollar check with a ten cent overdraft he's received by a low browed old brute who calls for the bounce to put him out. Tell her right at the start the worst about the butcher, and the grocer, and the ice-man, and the milkman, and the plumber, and the gas meter—that they want their money and that it has to come out of that little roll of bills. Then give her enough to pay them, even if you have to grab for your lunch from a high stool. I used to know an old Jew who said that the man who carried was always a fool or a hog, but you've got to learn not to divide your salary on either basis.

Make your wife pay cash. A woman never really understands money till she's done that for awhile. I've noticed that people rarely pay down the money for foolish purchases; they charge them. And it's mighty seldom that a woman's extravagant unless she or her husband pays the bills by check. There's something about counting out the actual legal tender on the spot that keeps a woman from really wanting a lot of things which she thinks she wants.

A POOR INGREDIENT

Adding Mother-in-law to the Domestic Pot Often Makes It Boil Over

A good cook, a good wife and a good job will make a good home anywhere, but you add your mother-in-law and the first thing you know you've got two homes, and one of them is being run on allmy.

You want to remember that beside your mother-in-law you're a comparative stranger to your wife. After you and Helen have lived together for a year you ought to be so well acquainted that she'll begin to believe that you know almost as much as mamma. But during the first few months of married life there are apt to be a good many the votes on important matters, and if mother-in-law is on the premises she is generally going to break the tie by casting the deciding vote with daughter. A man can often get the best of one woman or ten men, but not of two women when one of the two is mother-in-law.

When a young wife starts house-keeping with her mother too handy it's like running a business with a new manager and keeping the old one along to see how things go. It's not in human nature that the old manager, even with the best disposition in the world, shouldn't knock the new one a little, and you're Helen's new manager. When I want to make a change I go about it like a crab—get rid of the old shell first and then plunge right in and begin to do business with the new skin. It may be a little tender and open to attack at first, but it doesn't take long to toughen up when it finds out that the responsibility of protecting my white meat is on it.—From "Old Gorgon Graham; More Letters From a Self-Made Merchant to His Son," by George Horace Lorimer.

Being Something That You Ain't

If You Try to Fool the World, You Fool Only Yourself

From "Old Gorgon Graham; More Letters From a Self-Made Merchant to His Son," by George Horace Lorimer. By permission of Doubleday, Page & Co., Publishers.

After you've been married a little while you're going to find that there are two kinds of happiness you can have—home happiness and fashionable happiness. With the first kind you get a lot of children and with the second a lot of dogs. While dogs mind better and seem more affectionate, because they kiss you with their whole face, I've always preferred to associate with children. Then for the first kind of happiness you keep house for yourself, and for the second you keep house for the neighbors.

You can buy a lot of home happiness with a mighty small salary, but fashionable happiness always costs just a little more than you're making. You can't keep down expenses when you've got to keep up appearances—that is, the appearance of being something that you ain't. You're in the fix of a dog chasing his tail—you can't make ends meet, and if you do it'll give you such a crick in your neck that you won't get any real satisfaction out of your gymnastics. You've got to live on a rump steak basis when you're alone so that you can appear to be on a quail on toast basis when you have company. And while they're eating your quail and betting that they're cold storage birds they'll be whispering to each other that the butcher told their cook that you lived all last week on a soup bone and two pounds of hamburger steak. Your wife must hog it around the house in an old wrapper because she's got to have two or three of those dresses that come high on the bills and low on the shoulders, and when she wears 'em the neighbors are going to wonder how much you're short in your accounts. And if you've been raised a shouting Methodist and been used to hollering your satisfaction in a good hearty "Glory!" or a "Halleluah!" you've got to quit it and go to one of those churches where the right answer to the question "What is the chief end of man?" is "Dividend," and where they think you're throwing a fit and sick tea sexton on to you if you forget yourself and whoop it up a little when your religion gets to working.

Then if you do have any children you can't send them to a plain public school to learn reading, writing and arithmetic, because they've got to go to a fashionable private one to learn hog Latin, hog wash and how much the neighbors are worth. Of course the rich children are going to say that they're pushing little kids, but they've got to learn to push and to shove and to butt right in where they're not wanted if they intend to herd with the real Angora billy goats. They've got to learn how to bow low to every one in front of them and to kick out at every one behind them. It's been my experience that it takes a good four year course in snubbing before you can graduate a first class snob.

Then when you've snubbed along at it for a dozen years or so you'll wake up some morning and discover that your appearances haven't deceived any one but yourself. A man who tries that game is a good deal like the fellow who puts on a fancy vest over a dirty shirt—he's the only person in the world who can't see the egg spots under his chin.

Playing a Fool Game.

Never ask a man what he knows, but what he can do. A fellow may know everything that's happened since the Lord started the ball to rolling and not be able to do anything to help keep it from stopping. But when a man can do anything he's bound to know something worth while. Books are all right, but dead men's brains are no good unless you mix a live one's with them.

It isn't what a man's got in the bank, but what he's got in his head, that makes him a great merchant. Rob a miser's safe and he's broke, but you can't break a big merchant with a jimmy and a stick of dynamite. The first would have to start again just where he began—hoarding up pennies; the second would have his principal assets intact. But accumulating knowledge or piling up money just to have a little more of either than the next fellow is a fool game that no broad minded man has time enough to sit in. Too much learning, like too much money, makes most men narrow.—From "Old Gorgon Graham; More Letters From a Self-Made Merchant to His Son," by George Horace Lorimer.

Christmas Entertainments.

The Christmas entertainments given by the several Sunday schools of the city were well attended. The programs were all good and reflect credit on those who were in charge as well as those who took part. There is no entertainment that means more and from which come better results than the Christmas entertainment. There is always a good lesson taught and besides happiness and good cheer go out from these that means something. The time spent on these is time well spent.

GOOD NEWS.

Many Seymour Readers Have Heard it and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Seymour are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills.
Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Mrs. L. T. Gorrell, of 709 Brown street, says: "I derived great benefit from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills.
My son also suffered a great deal from his kidneys and the use of Doan's Kidney Pills built him up and after taking them he had no further annoyance. My husband suffered much from a lame back, did not sleep well nights on account of the pain and a kidney weakness. He says he never had a medicine do him as much good as Doan's Kidney Pills. I have no hesitation in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills at every opportunity which occurs."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo,

States.

Famous Old Play

Wednesday evening that famous old play that will never wear out, "Ten Nights in a Bar-room," will be given at the opera house. The company that comes here is said to be a very strong one. The Johnstown Courier says:

"The Mitchell Lawson Company appeared at Music Hall last night to a packed house and a pleased audience.
"Ten Nights in a Bar-room" has never before been played here by a company that compared even favorably with this one. There was not a weak part in the show, and the concert that followed consisted of a number of specialties superior to any seen here in a long time."

Road Supervisors.

Under the new law road supervisors will be elected January 14, 1905. The trustees have general charge of this election and will doubtless give due notice. Good road supervisors are of much public importance. The cities and incorporated towns have no part in these elections.

Betrayal at the Altar.

That popular and successful English
melodrama "Betrayal at the Altar," will be played at the opera house tonight. This play had a wonderful run in London and is being presented in this country now for the first time. It is said to be one of the best melodramas now being played.

Cantata.

The St. Pauls Sunday School will give a Christmas Cantata at the church tonight.

brook wreck, passed a fine day yesterday in city hospital and feels much improved.—Columbus Times.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness
and that is by constitutional remedies.
Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be restored forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Faithful Dog.

Yesterday Lynn Terrell and family went to Mitchell and left their baby cub in the B. & O. S-W. waiting room until their return. During their absence their dog remained by the cub and no one dared molest it. He seemed to think that it was his duty to stand guard and this he did with remarkable faithfulness.

High Bowler.

H. G. Stratton, proprietor of the bowling alley, gave away a turkey Saturday night to the one that made the highest score during the week. The highest score was 188 and was made by Grover Cordes, who got the turkey.
Several others made excellent scores.

BROKE RECORD.

Between Seymour and Washington appears to be the favorite place of the B. & O. Southwestern engineers to make fast runs. Good time has been made on numerous occasions heretofore but Thursday the former records were beaten in the stove when train 1 covered the distance in the shortest time that ever had been made.

Train 1 was in charge of Martin
O'Brien, engineer, and Link Durland, conductor. Engine 1462 was pulling 1 and it left Seymour at 11:45. The train arrived here at 1:27. A five minute stop was made at Mitchell, leaving the actual running time at eighty-eight minutes. A slowdown was made at Shoals which reduces the speed to some extent. The distance between the two cities is eighty-three miles, thus making the rate close on to a mile a minute. This is considered excellent time by the officers, in view of the fact that the engineer was pulling seven heavily loaded cars.—Washington Herald.

Arm Broken.

Mrs. J. O. White, of West Fifth street, fell on a board walk at her home Saturday and fractured her left arm at the wrist. Dr. M. F. Gerrish was called and reduced the fracture.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

The more Magazines there are, the more Indispensable is The Review of Reviews

"Indispensable." "The one magazine I feel I must take." "The world under a field-glass." "An education in public affairs and current literature."—these are some of the phrases one hears from noted people who read the Review of Reviews. The more magazines there are, the more necessary is the Review of Reviews, because it brings together the best that is in all the most important monthlies of the world. Such is the flood of periodical literature that nowadays people say that the only way to keep up with it is to read the Review of Reviews. Entirely over and above this reviewing section, it has more original matter and illustrations than most magazines, and the most timely and important articles printed in any monthly.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you eat.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make a mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers

The famous little pills.

Mass Followed by Riot.
Bazom, Russian Poland, Dec. 26.—After the midnight mass at the Roman Catholic cathedral a crowd composed of workmen paraded the streets carrying red flags. The military authorities in trying to disperse it, were received with shots and a serious encounter followed in which the commander of the Twenty-sixth regiment was killed and a gendarme was wounded. One of the demonstrators was killed.

Carry Their Own Forts.
Harbin, Dec. 26.—Chinese from the south say that the Japanese have brought 50,000 Chinese into southern Manchuria, but have great difficulty in feeding them. They also say that the Japanese have prepared a thousand four-wheeled carts with iron shields in front and on the sides, which are to be pushed by soldiers and which are to carry rapid-fire and machine guns.

Out of Court's Jurisdiction.
San Francisco, Dec. 26.—George E. Letcher of San Jose, who is wanted by the Ohio authorities on the charge of arson, committed in that state twenty-five years ago, and who has been resisting by legal expedients extradition, has been kidnapped by detectives and taken in a launch to Martinez, where the Eastern overland train was boarded. Letcher is now out of the jurisdiction of the courts of this state.

Ohio "Lifer" Pardoned.
Columbus, Ohio, Dec. 26.—Joseph J. Levo, a life prisoner from Cincinnati, received the Christmas pardon at the Ohio penitentiary. Levo was a clerk in a railroad office who in a fit of passion shot and killed a young woman who had jilted him. He has served twelve years.

How to Illuminate the Tree.
The illumination of the tree is an important problem, for by the indiscriminate use of candles many a joyous Christmas has been turned into one of mourning. Tiny Japanese lanterns are much safer than unshielded candles, and they give a prettier effect. The small square lanterns with colored mica sides are also safe, for they have a sponge in the bottom that may be saturated with kerosene. When the wick is lighted it burns brightly and lasts longer than ordinary wax candles.

How to Make a Novel Pin Cushion.
Men are often glad of a pin cushion to hang up in their rooms, provided only that it is not too feminine in appearance. A very novel pin cushion can be made of a pipe case, which should be new and fresh looking and which it is often possible to obtain for nothing from a brother or a friend. Make a cushion exactly to fit the hollow which held the pipe or a little larger, as it must be well pushed into the case, the hollow being covered beforehand with glue. The cushion should be stuffed with sawdust or anything soft and covered with some pretty velvet or silk, the color being carefully chosen to match or contrast with the case. A pale brown or fawn color looks well, as a rule. Of course the pipe case will be double, being open, and one side can, if desired, be left as it is or utilized as a cushion for needles. A ribbon bow of color to match must be added at the top to hang it up by.

How to Prepare Turkey Salad.
For the supper table Christmas night chicken or turkey salad in a cranberry mold is delicious. Make the cranberry jelly and mold in a ring. Turn out very carefully just before serving and fill the center with the salad. Turkey salad, by the way, is as good as, if not better, than chicken salad when mixed with plenty of celery and a few walnut meats.

How to Make Imitation Snowballs.
A Christmas tree decoration that is easily and inexpensively made at home is snowballs. A coil of fine picture wire, a box of diamond powder and a bundle of cotton batting (not sheet wadding) are the materials needed. The wire is cut in various short lengths, a wad of the cotton thrust upon it, patted into shape to look like a ball, and the powder dusted over it from a perforated toilet powder box. The other end of the wire is bent over to form a fastening, and the ball is ready for the tree. It is effective to have the balls vary in size from that of a small apple to a large orange.

OIL DOESN'T PAY

Standard Is Canceling Its Leases In Pike and Gibson Counties.

A LOSING PROPOSITION

In the Past Two Years the Standard Company Has Lost $100,000 Prospecting That Field.

But One Drilling Rig Is Now at Work and Much Depends Upon Its Outcome.

Petersburg, Ind., Dec. 26.—The Standard Oil company is canceling all leases in Pike and Gibson counties. The Standard company has lost $100,000 in the past two years in developing oil territory in this and Gibson county, while the Petersburg Mining and Manufacturing association has lost $50,000 developing the gas output near Petersburg. At present there is but one drilling rig at work in Pike county, and it is located just west of this city. Much of the future development of the county depends on the success of this well.

COULDN'T STAND CRITICISM

Postmaster Left Note Saying He Was Nagged to Death.

Indianapolis, Dec. 26.—Unrelenting criticism on the part of his neighbors and acquaintances is responsible for the suicide of Alexander White, the postmaster and druggist at Lawrence, who shot himself through the head. "People have nagged me to death," was the dying message he left behind and a review of the facts tends to establish the truth of this assertion.

White was found dead on the floor of his drug store. The doors were locked and a revolver was lying at his side. A few minutes before he had left home, telling his wife that he was tired and did not feel well. A short note hurriedly written established the fact that he had committed suicide.

White had been postmaster only since Dec. 15, and it was the adverse criticism occasioned by his appointment to the office that drove him to kill himself.

Life Convicts Released.

Michigan City, Dec. 26.—Through the clemency of Governor Durbin four life convicts in the state prison at Michigan City walked out of the institution Christmas eve. One was pardoned and three paroled. The men released were George Fritts, sentenced from Lawrence county in 1901 for murder; Samuel H. Price, sentenced from Lawrence county in 1893 for murder; John Cline sentenced from Pike county in 1898 for murder, and Fred Richards, sentenced from Allen county in 1884 for murder. The action of the governor in each case, it was stated, was based on the recommendations of the state board of pardons.

Terre Haute Bartender Killed.

Terre Haute, Ind., Dec. 26.—William Taylor, a bartender in his brother's saloon, was shot and fatally wounded by Albert Bennett of Brazil. Taylor was removed to the hospital, where he died. Bennett was placed under arrest just as he was attempting to board an interurban car to leave the city. The tragedy was the outcome of a quarrel over a trivial matter.

Caught at the Crossing.

Marion, Ind., Dec. 26.—Henry Stroup, a farmer miraculously escaped being killed in a collision with a fast Toledo, St. Louis & Western passenger train. Stroup had the curtain of his buggy drawn and did not see the train, which struck the rig squarely, hurling it along the tracks 100 feet, while Stroup sat on the seat and came down uninjured.

New Teachers' Association.

Princeton, Ind., Dec. 26.—Because numbers of public school teachers have been unable to attend the state teachers' meetings each year, Superintendent Harold Barnes of the schools of this city is to organize the Southwest Indiana Teachers' association, to embrace twenty counties in this part of the state.

Fatal Fall From Car.

Windfall, Ind., Dec. 26.—Augustus Brandt, aged fifty-five, is dead from injuries received in stepping backward from a traction car. He started to get off the car while it was still in motion, but lost his balance and fell. His skull was crushed. He did not regain consciousness.

Monon Extension Promised.

Brazil, Ind., Dec. 26.—Promoters of an extension of the Monon from Indianapolis to Linton state that the road is almost a certainty and that corps of engineers will begin work in this county Jan. 2.

An Early Ice Crop.

Goshen, Ind., Dec. 26.—For the first time in years local ice men have already put up nearly their entire crop, the ice being nine inches thick and absolutely free from slush.

Work Resumed in Tinsplate Mill.

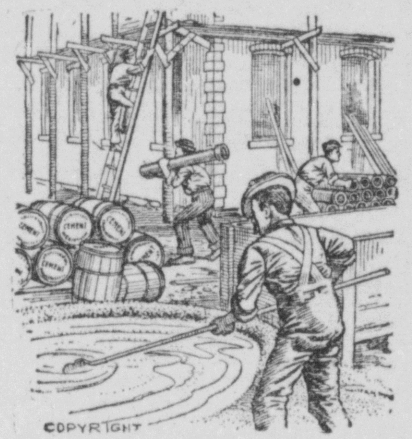

Noblesville, Ind., Dec. 26.—Work has been resumed on the tinsplate mill at Atlanta, which has been idle for over a year.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

On account of the great merit and popularity of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR for Coughs, Colds, and Lung Trouble, several manufacturers are advertising imitations with similar sounding names with the view of profiting by the favorably known reputation of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR.

DO NOT BE IMPOSED UPON

We originated HONEY AND TAR as a Throat and Lung Remedy and unless you get FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR you do not get the original and genuine.

Remember the name and insist upon having FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. Do not risk your life or health by taking imitations, which cost you the same as the genuine.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR is put up in three sizes—25c, 50c and $1.00.

Prepared only by FOLEY & CO., 92-94-96 Ohio Street, Chicago, Illinois.
